

New Secondary Deputy /Assistant Principal: Training Course

Join other recently appointed DPs and APs from Secondary schools around New Zealand. Learn best practice from experienced Principals, DPs / APs and the expertise and experience of others. This course is for four days during term two.

The days will be active and interactive with a mix of mini lectures, workshops, peer coaching, networking, sharing and socialising. There is an emphasis on translating theory into practice and vice versa. You will be given opportunities to share and learn and leave with an action plan.

There will be four themes:

- Being a leader, growing leadership
- Leading Learning and Priority Learners
- Leading Students
- Leading the people – hard stuff with staff

Topics include: Leading change, how to be that efficient manager, dealing with difficult adolescents, having the challenging conversations with parents, students, staff and other SLT, realising Māori potential, engaging Pasifika students, managing the shift in role, 'imposter syndrome', coaching, managing stress and reactions to behaviour.
